

Media Release Policy

Visual and non-visual representation of our landscapes, businesses, residents, and guests are vital to the promotion of Huntington County.

Therefore, it is the policy of the Huntington County Visitor & Convention Bureau (HCVB) that any photographic, video/film image, audio recording, or verbal/written statement about our county submitted/posted for website and/or social media usage by residents, guests or other persons, becomes the property of HCVB and may be used for the purpose of advertising, publication and other communications in any manner and without compensation as HCVB deems appropriate, now and into the future, without prior consent by resident, guest or other persons.

When possible, we try to properly credit the contributor to the best of our capability. It is for this reason, that we ask those wishing to be credited for their work to complete the following form.
